As part of COMM 4908 Senior Seminar each student will prepare a portfolio that displays what has been gained from the major in Communications. The portfolio is a collection of materials from the students' courses that addresses each of the goals that the program faculty expects students to achieve It also includes a personal statement and a brief analysis of each course taken for the major in Communications. To create a portfolio, each student should maintain evidence from all communications courses and from other experiences that provide support for the student's accomplishments as a Communications major. Questions about the portfolio may be directed to the student's advisor or to any communications faculty member.
