

ART (ART)

ART 1009 Practice and Appreciation of the Visual Arts (3) 🎨

Introduction to the elements and nature of the visual arts and to critical awareness of the content, purpose, and value of historical works. Course includes hands-on instruction in several modes of art-making. Materials fee required. Prerequisite or corequisite: GE A2. Satisfies general education requirement Area C1 Arts and Theme R: Revolutionary Ideas and Innovations.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite or corequisite GE A2

General Education Attribute(s): C1 Arts, GE (C1) Arts, Theme R: Rev Ideas & Innovatns

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 1019 Art in Context (3) 🎨

Introduction to the elements and nature of the visual arts and to critical awareness of the content, purpose, and value of historical works. Course includes a series of visiting artists lectures and resulting critical analysis. Satisfies general education requirement Area C1 Arts.

General Education Attribute(s): C1 Arts, GE (C1) Arts

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

ART 2200 2D Foundation in Painting and Drawing (3)

Introduction to the theory, principles, and elements of drawing from observation (including drawing from still-life nature, man-made objects, and the human figure) as well as basic work with the techniques and skill sets necessary to fine art painting. Materials fee required.

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 2210 2D Foundation in Design and Printmaking (3)

Introduction to the theory, principles, and elements of two-dimensional design through study and instruction in the processes of Design and Printmaking. Material fees required.

Course Fee: Yes

ART 2220 Digital Imaging Foundation (3)

This course provides students with a basic technical and theoretical understanding of digital imaging and design while supplying students with an intensive experience with digital creative tools such as Adobe Illustrator and Adobe Lightroom. Materials fee required.

Course Fee: Yes

ART 2300 3D Foundation (3)

Introduction to the structural elements and organizing principles of three-dimensional design and fabrication. The course will expose students to the basic formal elements, materials, technical skills, working methods and safety standards of object making. Media utilized will include clay, plaster, wood, cardboard, steel, and found material. Material fees required.

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 2400 4D Foundation Time Based Art (3)

Introduction to the use of time within contemporary art. Course offers students an opportunity to expand their understanding of traditional art forms through the added element of time, including lecture and hands-on practice in Video Art, Sound Art, Performance Art, Participatory Art, Relational Aesthetics, and Post-net Art. Materials fee required.

Course Fee: Yes

ART 2508 Survey of Art (Pre-history to 1400) (3) 🎨

A chronological study of art and architecture from humans' beginnings to the medieval era, with much emphasis on the historical, philosophical, and cultural aspects affecting art in each period and culture. Prerequisite: completion of GE A2. Satisfies general education requirement Area C1 Arts and Theme R: Revolutionary Ideas and Innovations.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ENGL 1109 (GE A2) or the equivalent.

General Education Attribute(s): C1 Arts, GE (C1) Arts, Theme R: Rev Ideas & Innovatns

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

ART 2608 Survey of Art (1400-Present) (3) 🎨

A chronological study of art and architecture from 1400 to the present with much emphasis on the historical, philosophical, and cultural aspects affecting art in each period and culture. Prerequisite: completion of GE A2. Satisfies general education requirement Area C1 Arts and Theme R: Revolutionary Ideas and Innovations.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ENGL 1109 (GE A2) or the equivalent.

General Education Attribute(s): C1 Arts, GE (C1) Arts, Theme R: Rev Ideas & Innovatns

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

ART 2700 Special Studies in Art (3)

An umbrella listing for any class, course of individual research, and/or group investigation of selected topics in Art not covered by existing Art offerings. Topic(s) to be studied will be designated by the professor prior to registration. Art 2700 courses may only be taught by Art Department faculty. Materials fee may be required. May be repeated for credit with different topics up to a maximum of 9 units.

Repeatable for Credit: Yes, up to 9 units

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 2708 Art of the Americas (3) 🎨

This course provides an exploration into the historical issues and cultural efforts brought forth within the indigenous, colonial and national eras in the American hemisphere. Students will inquire into central issues including the limits of where "America" is situation both as a region and as a collective experience. Students will explore art practices ranging from indigenous art from pre-contact through contemporary periods as well development of national identities in the modern period. Prerequisite or corequisite GE A2. Satisfies general education requirement Area C1 Arts.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite or corequisite GE A2

General Education Attribute(s): C1 Arts, GE (C1) Arts

ART 3100 Art in the Elementary Classroom (3)

Students use the various methodologies of Art Education to examine early human development in the visual arts, learning fundamental criteria for judging and understanding elementary artwork. Course includes studio work in drawing, painting, and crafts as well as relevant Art Historical readings and viewing. Prerequisite: completion of GE A. Sophomore standing or higher and major in Liberal Studies (teaching), Child, Adolescent and Family Studies (CAFS), or Art Education.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: completion of GE A. Sophomore standing or higher and major in Liberal Studies (teaching), Child, Adolescent and Family Studies (CAFS), or Art Education.

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

ART 3200 Drawing (3)

Students explore ideas in composition, line, and proportion as they relate to the history and possibilities of drawing. Course includes practice in contour drawing, value drawing, and structural drawing, and will help students to develop a foundation of drawing skills that will set the basis for future art making. Materials fee required. Prerequisite: ART 2200.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2200

Typically Offered: Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 3210 Painting (3)

Students develop an understanding of the history, possibilities, and problems of this longest standing practice within the visual arts. Using a variety of painting media to challenge and explore the 2D pictorial plane, students apply design fundamentals to graphic space, visual organization and imagery. Materials fee required. Prerequisite: ART 2200 or ART 2210.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: Satisfactory completion of ART 2210 or 2200.

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 3220 Printmaking (3)

Students explore the possibilities related to four processes of Printmaking: Screen Printing, Etching, Relief Printing and Digital Printing. Students will develop a technical understanding of each of these processes and apply this learning to advanced creative concepts. Specific attention will be paid to the histories, possibilities, and problems of the multiple within Fine Arts. Materials fee required. Prerequisite: ART 2200 or ART 2210.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: Satisfactory completion of ART 2200 or 2210.

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 3230 Photography (3)

Students develop a technical and theoretical understanding of Digital Photography and/or the artistic traditions and processes of Analog Wet-Lab Photography. Moving past the scope of a traditional photography class, ART 3230 students will pursue the captured image beyond standard 2D presentation, pushing their digital and photographic work into time-based practices and processes of digital manipulation. Materials fee required. Prerequisite: ART 2220 or ART 2400.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2220 or 2400

Course Fee: Yes

ART 3300 Sculpture (3)

Students develop an understanding of materials, technologies, histories, and aesthetic concepts related to contemporary sculpture. Course work will include the hands-on, independent creation of 3D sculptural works incorporating concepts of matter, form, content, and context. Materials fee required. Prerequisite: ART 2300.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2300

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 3310 Ceramics (3)

Students explore the ceramic processes of hand building, wheel-throwing, glazing, and firing. Techniques are introduced as practiced by both the studio potter and the ceramic sculptor. Materials fee required. Course may be repeated once for credit by non-Art majors. Prerequisite: ART 2300 or Kinesiology major with junior standing or higher.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2300 or Kinesiology major with junior standing or higher.

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 3400 Time-based Art (3)

Students develop an advanced understanding of the deliberate use of time within contemporary art. Course includes lecture and hands-on practice in mediums including (but not limited to) Video Art, Film Art, Sound Art, Conceptual Art, Performance Art, Participatory Art, Interactive Art, Relational Aesthetics, and Post-net Art. Materials fee required.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2220 or ART 2400.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2220 or 2400

Course Fee: Yes

ART 3410 Animation (3)

Students develop an understanding of basic Animation concepts through an intensive experience with practical Animation methods. Production of animated shorts will be the primary focus of this course, and Animation students will develop the skill set and level of commitment necessary to their completion and perfection. Art students enrolled in Art 3410 will engage Animation as a lens through which to reconsider their own creative practices. Materials fee required. Prerequisite: ART 2220 or ART 2400.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2220 or ART 2400.

Typically Offered: Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 3500 The Art of Ancient Greece (3)

Students examine the art and architecture produced in Greece and the Greek world from the Early Bronze Age to the end of the First Century BCE. The emphasis will be placed on the art of the Classical Age.

Prerequisite: ART 2508.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2508.

Typically Offered: Fall Odd Year

ART 3510 Roman Art (3)

Students examine the art and architecture produced by ancient Rome and its empire from the 8th century BCE through its mutation into forms that presage Medieval European art during the third and the fourth centuries. Prerequisite: ART 2508.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2508.

Typically Offered: Spring Odd Year

ART 3520 Medieval Art (3)

Students examine the development of the Medieval schools and styles of art and architecture in Europe from the 3rd to the 15th centuries.

Prerequisite: ART 2508.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2508.

Typically Offered: Fall Odd Year

ART 3530 Art of Italian Renaissance (3)

Students analyze the painting, sculpture, and architecture in Italy from the 14th through the 16th Centuries. Emphasis will be placed on the High Renaissance achievements in the arts. Prerequisite: ART 2508.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2508.

Typically Offered: Spring Odd Year

ART 3600 Baroque and Rococo Art (3)

Students examine the major artists and schools of art and architecture in Western Europe in the 17th and early 18th centuries. Course content is organized regionally, placing much emphasis on Baroque and Rococo art theories. Prerequisite: ART 2608.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2608.

Typically Offered: Fall Odd Year

ART 3610 Art in the United States (3)

Students examine the development of art and architecture in the United States from the 17th century until the present day, with attention to American art and architecture as an expression of American values.

Prerequisite: ART 2608.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2608 and upper division standing.

Typically Offered: Spring Odd Year

ART 3618 Revolutionary Art of the 19th Century (3)

From the Industrial Revolution to the Paris International Exposition of 1900, this course explores a century of Western art and architecture defined by major discoveries, cultural and political upheavals, the introduction of new technologies, and radical ideals. Students examine the consequences of major events in the world on European art, the impact of artistic innovations on the world, and their continuing effects in society today. Lecture/discussion. Prerequisites: at least 45 units and completion of LD Area C. Satisfies general education requirements upper division Area UDC and Theme R: Revolutionary Ideas and Innovations.

Requisite(s): Prerequisites: At least 45 units and completion of LD Area C.

General Education Attribute(s): Theme R: Rev Ideas & Innovatns, Upper Division C

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

ART 3620 Modern Art 1900-1980 (3)

The history of modern art was fueled by a cyclical need to explore new materials, create new forms, develop new concepts, explore newer materials, and so on. From Art Nouveau to the New Wave, this course examines American and European art and architecture of the 20th century. Prerequisite: ART 2608 and junior standing or higher.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2608 and upper division standing.

ART 3630 Contemporary Directions in Art (3)

From late Modernism to the Contemporary art world, this class explores movements in art since the late 1940s. Particular attention will be paid to the development and subsequent implosion of both Modern and Postmodern premises. Prerequisite: ART 2608.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2608 and upper division standing.

Repeatable for Credit: Yes, up to 20 units

Typically Offered: Spring

ART 3648 History of Photography (3)

Students explore the history and development of photography as an art medium from its origins in the 1830s to the present, examining the qualities of different techniques and modes of expression. Prerequisites: at least 45 units and completion of LD Area C. Satisfies general education requirement upper division Area UDC and Theme R: Revolutionary Ideas and Innovations.

Requisite(s): Prerequisites: At least 45 units and completion of LD Area C.

General Education Attribute(s): Theme R: Rev Ideas & Innovatns, Upper Division C

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

ART 3650 Women in Visual Arts (3)

Students explore the history of female accomplishments in the visual arts, including an examination of the many ways that gender has been constructed in the visual world. Focus will be on women, both as artists and as subjects of art.

Typically Offered: Spring

ART 3660 The Art of Asia (3)

Students examine the painting, sculpture, architecture, and popular culture of China, Japan, and India. The organization is thematic, rather than strictly chronological, to emphasize the major philosophies and uniquely non-western perspectives that have shaped art in the East.

Prerequisite: ART 2608.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2608.

Typically Offered: Spring Odd Year

ART 3670 Contemporary Art in Latin America (3)

This course provides an in-depth exploration into the issues and conditions covered by artists in Latin America as well as within Diaspora communities working within the United States. Student will inquire into central issues including the limits of where "Latin America" is situated both as a region and as a collective experience. Students will explore art practices ranging from the post-WWII period through current trends in contemporary art practice. Prerequisite: ART 2608 or ART 2708.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 2608 or 2708.

Typically Offered: Spring

ART 4000 Theories of Visual Arts (3)

Students are introduced to the variety of theoretical and philosophical approaches to art. From the birth of art history as a discipline to the current (and often controversial) theories of visual culture, this class covers a variety of ways of looking at art. Prerequisite: Art major with Junior standing or higher; ART 3620, ART 3630 or ART 3670.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: Art major with Junior standing or higher; one from ART 3620, ART 3630 or ART 3670.

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

ART 4010 Exhibition Design (3)

Students explore the concepts, principles, and practices used in managing an art gallery, including the curating, preparing, and mounting of art exhibitions. Students will aid in the preparation and installation of professional-grade art exhibitions as well as design theoretical exhibitions of their own. Course includes work in grant writing and press release writing. Prerequisite: two courses from ART 2200 - 2708.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: two courses from ART 2200 - ART 2708.

Typically Offered: Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 4020 Visiting Artist (3)

Students directly assist a professional artist who is visiting campus to create a public artwork or an installation at a university gallery. Students will have direct access and responsibility relating to all aspects of the art-making process, from conception to fabrication to installation. Specific skills taught will be dictated by the requirements of the project design.

May be repeated for credit up to a maximum of 9 units.

Repeatable for Credit: Yes, up to 9 units

ART 4040 Professional Practices (3)

An in-depth study of the professional standards of fine art exhibition and discourse. Course includes instruction in art writing, reading, and criticism, development of online portfolios, documentation of work, and an introduction to the structures of art exhibition and sale. Prerequisite: Art major with senior standing and completion of ART 4000.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: Art major with senior standing and completion of ART 4000.

Course Fee: Yes

ART 4058 Senior Project and Exhibition (3) 🎨

Students produce a culminating body of work leading up to a final exhibition in the University gallery. Additionally, students will develop a professional portfolio, artist's statement, artist's resume, and personal biography for future use as a professionally exhibiting artist. Materials fee required. Prerequisite: at least 90 units, completion of JYDR and ART 4040 and must be a major in Studio Art or Art Education. Satisfies general education requirements Senior Capstone.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: At least 90 units, completion of JYDR and ART 4040 and must be a major in Studio Art or Art Education.

General Education Attribute(s): Capstone

Typically Offered: Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 4100 Crafts in Art Education (3)

Students explore the history, culture, application, and impact of craft on elementary and secondary education. The course provides an in-depth exploration of craft in education through the hands-on use of various crafts including textiles, ceramics, jewelry and fibers. Accompanying lectures will examine the historical and contemporary presences of these crafts as well as the possibilities they present for the development of future generations. Materials fee required. Prerequisite: ART 3100.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 3100.

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 4200 Advanced Studio Topics: 2D (3)

In-depth research and hands-on experimentation within an advanced topic related to 2D Art production. Students will avail to themselves a variety of art media and focus on the development of an individual style and aesthetic. The professor will define the parameters of topics studied. Materials fee required. Prerequisite: ART 4000 and one course from ART 3200 - ART 3410. May be repeated for credit up to a maximum of 9 units.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 4000 and one course from ART 3200-3410.

Repeatable for Credit: Yes, up to 9 units

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 4300 Advanced Studio Topics: 3D (3)

In-depth research and hands-on experimentation within an advanced topic related to 3D Art production. Students will avail to themselves a variety of art media and focus on the development of an individual style and aesthetic. Parameters of topic to be studied will be defined by professor. Materials fee required. Prerequisite: ART 4000 and one course from ART 3200 - ART 3410. May be repeated for credit up to a maximum of 9 units.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 4000 and one course from ART 3200-3410.

Repeatable for Credit: Yes, up to 9 units

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 4400 Advanced Studio Topics: 4D (3)

In-depth research and hands-on experimentation within an advanced topic related to 4D Art production. Students will avail to themselves a variety of art media and focus on the development of an individual style and aesthetic. Parameters of topic to be studied will be defined by professor. Materials fee required. Prerequisite: ART 4000 and one course from ART 3200 - ART 3410. May be repeated for credit up to a maximum of 9 units.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 4000 and one course from ART 3200-3410.

Repeatable for Credit: Yes, up to 9 units

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 4500 Advanced Studio Topics: Community Art Projects (3)

In-depth research and hands-on experimentation within the production of a community art project such as a mural, sculptural installation, or public art event. Students will research individually and work collaboratively, using a variety of art media towards the completion of a major art project within the community. Project to be completed will be defined by the professor. Materials fee required. Prerequisite: ART 4000 and one course from ART 3200 - ART 3410. May be repeated for credit up to a maximum of 9 units.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 4000 and one course from ART 3200 - ART 3410.

Repeatable for Credit: Yes, up to 9 units

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

ART 4700 Special Studies in Art (3)

An umbrella listing for any class, course of individual research, and/or group investigation of selected topics in Art not covered by existing Art offerings. Topic(s) to be studied will be designated by the professor prior to registration. ART 4700 courses may only be taught by Art Department faculty. Materials fee may be required. May be repeated for credit with different topics up to a maximum of 18 units.

Repeatable for Credit: Yes, up to 18 units

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 4710 Special Studies in Art History (3)

An umbrella listing for any class, course of individual research, and/or group investigation of selected topics in Art History not covered by existing Art History offerings. Topic(s) to be studied will be designated by the professor prior to registration. ART 4710 courses may only be taught by Art Department faculty. May be repeated for credit with different topics up to a maximum of 18 units.

Repeatable for Credit: Yes, up to 18 units

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

ART 4850 Individual Study (3)

An umbrella listing for any faculty supervised course of individual student research into selected topics of Art, Art History, or Art Education. Topic(s) to be studied will be approved by the professor prior to registration and should not repeat topics covered by existing course offerings. ART 4850 courses may only be taught by Art Department faculty. Materials fee may be required. Prerequisite: department approval; sophomore standing or higher. May be repeated for credit with different topics up to a maximum of 18 units.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: sophomore standing or higher.

Repeatable for Credit: Yes, up to 18 units

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Fee: Yes

ART 4860 Internship in Applied Art (3)

Students gain practical experience in the fields of professional art practice and/or gallery practice at an off-campus site. Students are assigned to various professional art producers, museums or galleries and work under joint supervision of the host facility and the course instructor-internship coordinator. Offered only on a credit, no-credit basis. Arrangements should be made with the internship coordinator well in advance of the term in which the internship is to be taken; no retroactive credit will be allowed. Prerequisites: ART 3000 or ART 4010. Students who take this course must have a minimum overall 3.0 GPA and have completed 15 or more units with the Art major.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ART 3000 or 4010 or 421 and permission of the instructor.

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

ART 4908 Senior Thesis (3)

Students research, develop, and perfect an extensive research paper or curriculum module on a topic that is an outgrowth of the subjects studies within the Art History or Art Education major. The topic will be selected in consultation with an advisor and with the consent of the art faculty.

Prerequisite: At least 90 units, completion of JYDR, and ART 4000.

Satisfies general education requirement Senior Capstone.

Requisite(s): Prerequisite: At least 90 units, completion of JYDR, and completion of ART 4000.

General Education Attribute(s): Capstone

Typically Offered: Spring